Become CPL ‘Champions’

Hosted by experienced and professional facilitators, CPL ‘Champions’ is a fun, fast-paced and highly interactive session, filled with activities that promote greater teamwork, with prizes to be won.

Your colleagues will get a unique insight into this amazing charity and the opportunity to self-reflect and draw parallels from the unique way CPL operates with their own team and work environments by: appreciating unconscious bias and how we are all prone to making assumptions about others; better understanding the range of disabilities and debunking the myths around disabilities; gaining an insight into the charity’s customer-centric approach and services; learning a new communication tool and using these insights to brainstorm practical ways to work better as a team.
