Become Habitat for Humanity 'Tomorrow Builders'

Hosted by experienced and professional facilitators, Habitat for Humanity Australia 'Tomorrow Builders' is a fun, fast-paced and highly interactive session, filled with activities that promote greater teamwork, with prizes to be won.

Your colleagues will get a unique insight into this amazing charity and the opportunity to self-reflect and draw parallels from how Habitat for Humanity Australia operate with their own team and work environments by: understanding the scope and impact of the housing crisis here and in Asia Pacific; appreciating the importance of how having a roof over your head is a game changer and how shelter can help break the poverty cycle and build resilience in the community; and using these insights to identify practical ways to work better as a team.

How will Habitat for Humanity Australia benefit?
